ROLE OF THE BOARD AND EXECUTIVES

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

12. The Board has the ultimate responsibility for ensuring that all Defendants comply with this Order.

13. Each Defendant's Chief Executive Officer and the Board, respectively, must review all plans and reports required by such Defendant under this Order, and any submissions to the Bureau, prior to such submission.

14. One year after the Effective Date and again two years after the Effective Date, Defendants must submit to the Enforcement Director an accurate written compliance progress report (Compliance Report) that has been approved by the Board, the accuracy of which is sworn to under penalty of perjury, and which, at a minimum:

- a. describes the steps that the Board and each Defendant's Chief Executive Officer have taken to reasonably assess whether each Defendant is complying with each paragraph and subparagraph of this Order and the Redress Plan;
- b. describes in detail whether and how each Defendant has complied with each paragraph and subparagraph of this Order and the Redress Plan, including the manner of verification of such compliance and any corrective actions taken to remedy potential non-compliance with the applicable requirement, paragraph, or subparagraph;
- c. attaches a copy of each Order Acknowledgment obtained under Section X, unless previously submitted to the Bureau; and
- d. attaches a copy of assessments conducted pursuant to Paragraph 10 of this Order.

15. The Board and all Defendants' Chief Executive Officers must:

- c. require timely reporting by management to the Board and each Defendant's Chief Executive Officer on the status of compliance obligations.

MONETARY PROVISIONS

IV. ORDER TO PAY REDRESS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

16. Within 30 days of the Effective Date, Defendants must reserve or deposit into a segregated deposit account $5,000,000 for the purpose of providing redress to Affected Consumers as required by this Section (the "Redress Account"). Defendants will deposit additional funds into the Redress Account as the actual amount of redress is calculated such that the total amount Defendants deposit into the Redress Account equals the total amount of redress owed pursuant to the terms of this Order. At no point shall Defendants allow the balance of the Redress Account to fall below the total amount of redress owed but not yet paid to Affected Consumers. To the extent that the total amount of redress owed pursuant to this Order is less than the initial deposit amount of $5,000,000, Defendants shall be entitled to recoup the difference between the initial deposit amount and total redress.

17. Defendants must provide redress to Affected Consumers as follows:

- a. For Affected Consumers who redeemed their collateral: 120 percent of all fees, interest, and other charges (excluding principal) paid by the Affected Consumer to Defendants in connection with each non-MLA-compliant pawn loan, each such pawn loan being included for redress solely through the process provided in paragraph 20, and without prejudice to Defendants' position in paragraph 2.

- b. For Affected Consumers who did not redeem their collateral: all fees, interest, and other charges paid by the Affected Consumer to Defendants in connection with each non-MLA compliant pawn loan, plus an additional payment equivalent to the full principal amount of each non-MLA-compliant pawn loan made by Defendants to the Affected Consumer, each such pawn loan being included for redress solely through the process provided in paragraph 20, and without prejudice to Defendants' position in paragraph 2.
- c. Defendants shall not be required to pay an Affected Consumer for any fees, interests, charges or principal otherwise due under subparagraphs 17.a or 17.b to the extent Defendants have previously returned those same fees, interests, charges or principal to the Affected Consumer. If those Affected Consumers who redeemed their collateral were not also provided in a prior payment at least 120 percent of the fees, interests, or charges paid in connection with the pawn loan subject to redress, they shall receive such additional payment for that pawn to satisfy the 120 percent requirement of paragraph 17.a.
- d. Defendants relinquish all dominion, control, and title to all redress amounts sent to and accepted by Affected Consumers to the fullest extent permitted by law, and Defendants have no right to reclaim redress sent to and accepted by Affected Consumers pursuant to the terms of this Order.

18. Defendants must provide all relief to Affected Consumers required by this Order, regardless of whether the total relief exceeds the amount reserved or deposited into the Redress Account. Defendants will ensure that the Redress Account is maintained, and that all valid claims for redress are honored, regardless of any corporate transaction, change in corporate form, or asset sale that might otherwise affect the Redress Account, including specifically requiring any successor entity to maintain the Redress Account and continue to honor valid claims for redress. Five years after the Effective Date, Respondent must pay to the Bureau, by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent, and according to the Bureau's wiring instructions, the balance of the Redress Account, at which point Defendants will not be responsible for honoring outstanding redress claims. The Bureau may use these remaining funds to pay additional redress to Affected Consumers. If the Bureau determines, in its sole discretion, that additional redress is wholly or partially impracticable or otherwise inappropriate, or if funds remain after the additional redress is completed, the Bureau will deposit any remaining funds in the U.S. Treasury. Defendants will have no right to challenge any actions that the Bureau or its representatives may take under this Section.

19. Conditioned on the entry of this Order as proposed by the Parties, the Bureau has provided non-objection to a comprehensive written plan for providing redress consistent with this Order (Redress Plan). Defendants must implement and adhere to the steps, recommendations, deadlines, and timeframes outlined in the Redress Plan.

20. The Bureau and Defendants shall agree on the population of Affected Consumers by the following:

- a. for the 42,698 pawn loans that the Bureau has already identified to Defendants as loans it asserts warrant redress for the period beginning October 3, 2016, and ending August 25, 2024, Defendants may lodge any objections to pawn loans identified on that list no later than 30 days after the Effective Date. The Parties will negotiate in good faith to resolve any objections raised by Defendants. If after 30 days the parties reach an impasse on any objection, they are required to meet in person at a mutually agreeable location to attempt to resolve any remaining objections.

- b. No later than 30 days after the Effective Date, Defendants will provide the Bureau transaction data, with similar data fields as included in the previous data productions made to the Bureau on September 27, 2022, and September 20, 2024, for the period from August 25, 2024 to the Effective Date, sufficient to allow the Bureau to identify loans it believes warrant redress. Upon receipt of a Bureau-provided list of loans the Bureau contends warrant redress for that period, Defendants have no more than 30 days after receipt of that list to lodge objections with the Bureau. Thereafter, the process for resolving objections and finalizing the list of loans for which Defendants must pay redress, shall be the same as in subparagraph 20.a above.
- c. No later than 6 months and 30 days after the Effective Date, Defendants will provide the Bureau transaction data, with similar data fields as included in the previous data productions made on September 27, 2022, and September 20, 2024, for the period from the Effective Date to 6 months after the Effective Date, or to the implementation of the MLA-Compliant pawn product described in Paragraph 9, whichever occurs first, sufficient to allow the Bureau to identify loans it believes warrant redress. Upon receipt of a Bureau-provided list of loans the Bureau contends warrant redress for that period, Defendants have no more than 30 days after receipt of that list to lodge objections with the Bureau. Thereafter, the process for resolving objections and finalizing the list of loans for which Defendants must pay redress shall be the same as in subparagraph 20.a above.
- d. Defendants may not object to a loan being included in the redress population based on lack of consumer purpose unless the Defendants have evidence (beyond the item used as collateral) that a specific loan was for some purpose other than consumer purpose.

21. The Court retains jurisdiction over the parties to resolve any disputes that arise related to Defendants' performance under the Redress Plan or the process for identification of Affected Customers contained in Paragraph 20. As part of resolving any or all of those disputes, the Court may order the parties to mediation, overseen by a mediator of the Court's choosing, with half of the costs of mediation to be paid for by Defendants and the other half to be paid for by the Bureau.

22. Within 30 days of completing all actions required by the Redress Plan, Defendants must submit to the Bureau a Redress Report detailing the number of consumers and consumer accounts who received redress, the total amount of redress paid to those consumers, and such consumers' states of residence.

23. Defendants may not condition the payment of any redress to any Affected Consumer under this Order on that Affected Consumer waiving any right.

V.

Order to Pay Civil Money Penalty

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

24. Under Section 1055(c) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c), by reason of the violations of law alleged in the Amended Complaint and continuing until the Effective Date, Defendants must pay a civil money penalty of $4,000,000 to the Bureau.

25. Within 10 days of the Effective Date, Defendants must pay the civil money penalty by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent in compliance with the Bureau's wiring instructions.

26. The civil money penalty paid under this Order will be deposited in the Civil Penalty Fund of the Bureau as required by Section 1017(d) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5497(d).

27. Defendants must treat the civil money penalty paid under this Order as a penalty paid to the government for all purposes. Regardless of how the Bureau ultimately uses those funds, Defendants may not:

- a. claim, assert, or apply for a tax deduction, tax credit, or any other tax benefit for any civil money penalty paid under this Order; or
- b. seek or accept, directly or indirectly, reimbursement or indemnification from any source, including, but not limited to, payment made under any insurance policy, with regard to any civil money penalty paid under this Order.

VI.

Additional Monetary Provisions

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

28. In the event of any default on Defendants' obligations to make payment under this Order, interest, computed under 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, will accrue on any outstanding amounts not paid from the date of default to the date of payment, and will immediately become due and payable.

29. The facts alleged in the Amended Complaint will be taken as true and be given collateral estoppel effect, without further proof, in any proceeding based on the entry of the Order or in any subsequent civil litigation by or on behalf of the Bureau relating to this Order, including in a proceeding to enforce its rights to any payment or monetary judgment under this Order, such as a non-dischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

30. The facts alleged in the Amended Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by the Bureau under Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and for such purposes this Order will have collateral estoppel effect against each Defendant, even in such Defendant's capacity as debtor-in-possession.

31. Defendants acknowledge that their Taxpayer Identification Numbers, which Defendants previously submitted to the Bureau, may be used for collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order, in accordance with 31 U.S.C. § 7701.

32. Within 30 days of the entry of a final judgment, order, or settlement in a Related Consumer Action, Defendants must notify the Enforcement Director of the final judgment, order, or settlement in writing. That notification must indicate the amount of redress, if any, that Defendants paid or are required to pay to consumers and describe the consumers or classes of consumers to whom that redress has been or will be paid. To preserve the deterrent effect of the civil money penalty in any Related Consumer Action, Defendants may not argue that Defendants are entitled to, nor may Defendants benefit by, any offset or reduction of any compensatory remedies imposed in the Related Consumer Action because of the civil money penalty paid in this action or because of any payment that the Bureau makes from the Civil Penalty Fund. If the court in any Related Consumer Action offsets or otherwise reduces the amount of compensatory monetary remedies imposed against Defendants based on the civil money penalty paid in this action or based on any payment that the Bureau makes from the Civil Penalty Fund, Defendants must, within 30 days after entry of a final order granting such offset or reduction, notify the Bureau and pay the amount of the offset or reduction to the U.S. Treasury. Such a payment will not be considered an additional civil money penalty and will not change the amount of the civil money penalty imposed in this action.

Release

33. The Bureau releases and discharges Defendants from all potential liability for law violations that the Bureau has or might have asserted consistent with Fifth Circuit precedent that “[a]n agreed judgment is entitled to full res judicata effect.” United States v. Shanbaum, 10 F.3d 305, 313 (5th Cir. 1994). This release does not preclude or affect any right of the Bureau to determine and ensure compliance with this Order, or to seek penalties for any violations of this Order.

COMPLIANCE PROVISIONS

VIII.

Reporting Requirements

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

34. Defendants must notify the Bureau of any development that may affect compliance obligations arising under this Order, including, but not limited to, a dissolution, assignment, sale, merger, or other action that would result in the emergence of a successor company; the creation or dissolution of a subsidiary, parent, or affiliate that engages in any acts or practices subject to this Order; the filing of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding by or against Defendants; or a change in Defendants' names or addresses. - Military ID Questions: (If the customer is eligible for the MLA pawn product based on the answers above, the employee will be prompted in POS to ask the following.)
 - “Do you have a current military ID as an active duty servicemember or a dependent?”
 - If customer says “yes” and the customer presents a valid military ID, the employee will offer the customer the MLA-compliant pawn product.
 - The customer will also have the option instead to sell the merchandise to FirstCash, which the customer can always choose to do.
 - If the customer has a military ID but does not have it on them, then the employee will inform them that they can obtain the MLA-compliant pawn product if they come back and present a valid military ID.
 - If the consumer cannot produce a valid military ID, Defendants have the discretion to accept other forms of proof that the consumer is a covered borrower, potentially including recent military earnings and leave statements.
 - The POS system will not permit an employee to issue a pawn loan with MLA-violative terms to any consumer who answered “yes” to any of the questions. The POS will automatically lock any “yes” responses such that an employee cannot change a response from “yes” to “no” without store-manager approval.

- If the customer has a valid military ID available, the employee will enter the customer’s military ID number into POS system and execute the pawn transaction using the MLA-compliant product.
- The customer will not be charged any fees by FirstCash that are in addition to the underlying charges associated with the MLA-compliant pawn transaction, including lost ticket fees, storage fees, service fees, or set-up fees.
